CONFIDENTIAL FAILURE TO SURVIVE

The Confidential Failure to Survive insurance plan was designed to provide insurance benefits which would indemnify contractual obligations between third parties. This unique plan of insurance allows for coverage to remain confidential in that the owner of the policy will acquire the coverage without the need for the insured to conduct a medical exam or sign the application.

KEY POINTS

In order for coverage to be considered by underwriters the policy owner must provide contractual justification for such insurance. A written agreement between the two parties becomes the essential element of underwriting Confidential Failure to Survive. An annual review of the financial agreement is required for renewal. Coverage is offered on an annual basis, yet shorter terms are also available. Confidentiality is a critical component to the successful underwriting of this plan.

Top Coverage Needs:

- Talent Agents who need to protect their income source
- Business Managers who rely on the earning capability of others
- Sponsors who have a great deal of money at risk for promotional purposes
- Advertisers with celebrity spokespersons
- Media Productions with contracted key players
- Venture Capital Investors relying on a key person
- Bank or Personal Loans that depend on the financial health of the borrower
